What are the design trends for 2018?

Design now is more multi-dimensional. Minimalist settings combined with bold graphics or patterns are certainly interesting. Special prints can be seen on vintage chairs and side tables, as well as fabrics from Living Divani's sofas.

Speaking of tables, they don't come in the standard round and rectangular shapes, but also in odd forms like Zanotta's Tweed and Pin tables.

There is a wider appreciation for craftsmanship and tradition, thus, iconic pieces from brands like Zanotta add a strong statement to a home. They are always timeless.

More than ever, individual tastes and preferences take centre stage. You can pair modern settings with vintage furniture, or minimalist bathroom fixtures with traditional fittings. Everything can come together in one cohesive, enthralling setting.
